

My "Cool Japan"

CLASS NO. NAME

The Japanese (culture / custom) I'm proud of is making pack lunch, bento.

This is Japanese bento. I like this the most.

My mother prepared this bento for me every morning.

This food is called Hinomaryu Bento. It has fish, tomato, egg, umeboshi and rice.

I never prepared this because I always feel tired. So, I usually think of thanking my mother for preparing this bento for me.

When you eat this, you need chopsticks.

This food is very good, please try it!
